

WINE

AN ACERBIC
COMEDY with a
BITTERSWEET FINISH

by PHILIP WALKATE

When the yearly wine tasting evening of old friends is disrupted by an unexpected visit, the gettogether takes a dramatic turn. The wine keeps flowing, the conversation becomes more intense and the saying In Vino Veritas gets a whole new meaning.

WINE is an acerbic comedy with razor sharp dialogues, hilarious oneliners and a surprising plot. It is a humorous, emotional & thrilling drama with powerful characters.

VOLKSKRANT

'Walkates comedy is staged and performed fantastically'

TELEGRAAF

'Accessible, full bodied and bitter sweet: rolls over the tongue deliciously'

SCÈNES

'Beautifully constructed, very humoristic drama with surprising plot turns'

NRC

'Wine is the Who's afraid of Virginia Woolf of our time.'

THEATERKRANT

'An upbeat and dynamic play, that pays tribute to the Anglo Saxon tradition of Edward Albee'